ESPN OUTDOORS SALTWATER SERIES PREVIEW

F.C.A. MANHATTAN CUP

Cocktail Party & Show Screening

@ craftbar

Thursday March 18th 6-9

Special Invitation for Redbone & Manhattan Cup Anglers!

“Top Chef” Tom Colicchio is your host for a night of food, drink and fun, as well as a chance to see the ESPN 2009 F.C.A. Montauk Redbone show before it airs! If you were at this past year’s tournament, this is your chance to see yourself on the big screen! If you missed it, and want to attend, this is a great opportunity. Just register now, and pay for either F.C.A./ Montauk Redbone or the F.C.A. Manhattan Cup, or both, and you're in! For each boat registered, you will receive two tickets for this party, pre pay for both, and receive four tickets.

Chef Tom will be fishing both tournaments, and is our host for the evening, at craftbar, his upscale, casual “hot spot”. The private dining room is reserved and ESPN is standing by with the yet unseen footage. Join us for three hours or Hours D'oeuvres and drinks, as we shake off the cold, and dream of warmer day’s and bent rods. Time is short and seating is limited, so please contact us ASAP, and let us know you want to register and attend!

Redbone and Manhattan Cup are the largest most exclusive tournaments in the Northeast and raise money for two great charities, cystic fibrosis and the marine resource, join us for great fishing, great fun, and two great causes!

Both charities are 501c3 Charitable Organizations and your donation is tax deductible to the fullest extent of the law.
